- Parish, in which you are a participating, registered member (for Catholics).
To qualify for the tuition support from a contributing parish, you must be registered as a contributing member of a participating parish. A parishioner is defined as one whom:
 1. is registered in the parish before June 30th,
 2. uses parish offertory envelopes regularly, and/or,
 3. is deemed by the pastor as supportive of the parish.An invoice will be sent to your Parish for tuition support. The supporting pastors will verify registration and participation in their Parish and must approve the tuition support payment or the tuition shall be the regular tuition rate.
- Parent signature at bottom of page two of the Registration Form (after reading all policy information).
- Tuition Contract completed and signed by person(s) financially responsible. If tuition is split between two parties, both parties must complete and sign both sides of the Tuition Contract.
- EFT or Credit Card form for monthly payment option.
- Financial Assistance Application, if applying for financial assistance. Applications are available at the Bishop Kelly front office or on the BK web site. Applications are due April 30, 2012. (See form for additional dates and information.) A copy of your 2011 Federal tax return and W-2s must be submitted with your application.
- All junior and senior transfers to Bishop Kelly High School must have completed all registration paperwork and an entry interview prior to June 15, 2012.
