

DNA Notes

There is a lot more information presented here than is necessary for students to know to be able to analyze the DNA from the crime scene. The information is presented here so that the students understand what they are looking at and what they are doing. This can be used in a classroom teaching situation also.